

Killaloe Diocesan Office, Westbourne, Ennis, Co. Clare. Tel: 065-6828638

Friday, July 22nd 2016

Appointments in the Diocese of Killaloe

Fr Desmond Hillery, Diocesan Administrator in the Diocese of Killaloe has made the following appointments in the diocese.

The clerical appointments take effect from Monday, August 1st 2016

1. Pastoral Plan Killaloe Diocese 2013-2020 ‘Builders of Hope’

The Diocese of Killaloe recently undertook a Mid-Term Evaluation of the Implementation of the Pastoral Plan. Following on from the recommendations contained in this evaluation it was decided that Fr. Ger Nash be appointed to the role of Director of Pastoral Development and will continue as Killaloe Diocesan Secretary.

2. Cluster of ImeallBoirne

The parishes of Imeall Boirne (Corofin, Crusheen, Ruan and Tubber) will be ministered by Frs. Pat O’Neill, Damien Nolan and Seamus Nohilly SMA. The reduction in the number of priests in the cluster will be addressed in all four parishes with Fr. Damien Nolan as Moderator who will co-ordinate the administration of the Cluster. This transition will be facilitated by Fr. Ger Nash, Director of Pastoral Development and by the Pastoral Workers of Killaloe Diocese.

3. Cloughjordan Parish

The parish of Cloughjordan has been served by the priests of the Cluster of Cois Deirige since January 2016. I thank the priests of Cois Deirige for their attention to the Parish of Cloughjordan during this time. The priests of Nenagh Parish will now take on this responsibility. Appropriate changes will take place in Nenagh and Cloughjordan Parishes in order to fulfil this extra responsibility. Fr. Ger Jones is appointed Administrator of the Parish of Cloughjordan along with his present appointment in Nenagh Parish. Fr. Des Hillery and Fr. Michael Geraghty will assist him while continuing their present appointments in Nenagh Parish. This transition will be facilitated by Fr. Ger Nash, Director of Pastoral Development and by the Pastoral Workers of Killaloe Diocese.

4. Communications

The rapidly expanding world of social media places a particular challenge on the Diocese and to meet this demand Fr. Michael Geraghty will be responsible for Social Media and our engaging with this area. Fr. Michael will be assisted by a team that he will be in charge of forming. This role is in conjunction with the Office of Communications.

5. Healthcare Chaplain

Fr. Tom O’Gorman will coordinate the support network of Catholic Healthcare Chaplains in the Diocese of Killaloe. This role will entail liaising with the National Catholic Healthcare Chaplains of Ireland and the Healthcare Chaplains of Killaloe Diocese.

=====

Notes

1. Clergy in the Diocese of Killaloe – Overall View - July 2016

At July 2015 the following are the number of priests serving in the Diocese of Killaloe

70 Killaloe priests are in fulltime parish ministry (Parish Priests and Curates)

3 Killaloe priests are engaged in fulltime school chaplaincy, teaching and other pastoral work throughout Ireland.

3 Killaloe Priests serve overseas in various ministries

19 Killaloe priests are fully retired from active ministry

The Diocese also benefits from the service of 7 priests from other dioceses or religious congregations serving as priests in parishes of the diocese.

The diocese also benefits from the ministry of the clergy based at the Franciscan Friary in Ennis and the Cistercian Monastery at Mount St. Joseph’s, Roscrea.

Total Catholic Population of the diocese 127,000 approx

Total number of Parishes in the diocese: 58.

These 58 parishes are now organised in 12 Clusters.

In each cluster, the local parishes and the priests who minister in them are encouraged to work together to meet local challenges.