Diocesan Appointments and Restructuring:

Bishop Fintan Monahan has issued the Diocesan Clerical Appointments for 2018. The key principles include:

- A reorganisation of Diocesan structures to support more workable Pastoral Areas that encourage greater co-operation between parishes.
- The pastoral care of all the people of the Diocese in a way that is accessible to them.
- The care of priests in a manner that is appropriate to their age and ministry. It is hoped that a strong sense of team ministry will develop according to the needs of each Pastoral Area. Priests under the retirement age (75) will act as Co-Parish Priests in each Pastoral Area. They will meet regularly to provide peer support and establish the best ways to work collaboratively in their ministry. One priest in each Pastoral Area will be appointed as Vicar Forane to co-ordinate and oversee joint pastoral efforts and programmes. Retired Clergy over the age of 75 will continue to provide ministry support in each Pastoral Area according to need and ability. Our cluster (Radharc na nOileán) now consists of four parishes: Ballynacally-Lissycasey, Coolmeen-Cranny, Kildysart and Kilmurry McMahon-Labasheeda). It will be served by two co-parish priests (Albert McDonnell, resident in Kildysart and Brendan Kyne, resident in Ballycorick) assisted by three semi-retired priests Joe Hourigan, Tom McGrath and Paddy McMahon. The vicar forane will be Albert McDonnell. ew structure will begin on 20th July 2018.

Director of Youth Ministry: The Diocese of Killaloe is recruiting a Director of Youth Ministry. Please see the Diocesan Website (www.killaloediocese.ie) for more details and application process.
